Celebrate Grandparents at Grand Velas Resort in Puerto Vallarta
Dolphin Encounters, Spanish Lessons, Mexican Folkloric Night and More
As part of the Grandparents Package Available Until October 1st

Nuevo Vallarta, Riviera Nayarit, Mexico (July 21, 2008) - This summer and fall, grandparents looking to spend quality time with the grandkids are heading to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico. Ocean-view luxury accommodations, spa relaxation techniques, up-close and personal soft-adventures, Spanish lessons, cooking classes, live sea lion and exotic bird shows, Mexican folkloric nights, and more await families at Grand Velas All Suites & Spa Resort, the only AAA Five Diamond Award winning family-friendly all-inclusive resort in North America. The Grandparents Package also includes one dolphin encounter per adult for grandparents to experience magnificent marine mammals with their young ones. When it comes time for grandparents to relax, the package also includes a complimentary 45-minute guided hydrotherapy circuit, complete with an herbal steam sauna and hydro-reflexology area, per adult. Grandparents looking to stay at the Puerto Vallarta resort for four nights are also credited with the last night free. Twenty-four hour in suite service; gourmet dining; supervised Grand Kids' Club; and taxes and gratuities are also included in the nightly rate. Available until October 1, 2008, the Grandparents Package starts at $622 USD per adult, based on double occupancy. Children under three are free, and children four to 12 cost $125 per child, per night. For reservations, please visit www.grandvelas.com.
